

Media Release

5 July 2011

DEVELOPER CONTRIBUTIONS COULD INCREASE NEW HOUSE PRICES

The UDIA's July luncheon tomorrow (Wednesday) will examine the contentious issue of the potential impact of developer contributions on the price of homes in new urban developments.

With the first developer contribution schemes under consideration an expert panel consisting of Gary Prattley, Chair, WA Planning Commission, Evan Jones, Director of Planning, Brookfield Residential Properties and Neil Harvey, CEO, Town of Kwinana, will examine the issue to examine the benefits and pitfalls.

The luncheon runs from 12 -2.30pm at the Burswood Entertainment Complex's Grand Ballroom.

If you'd like to attend please contact Communications Manager, Mark Schneider, on 0439 187 651.

End.

For further comment:	General Media Enquiries:
Debra Goostrey CEO UDIA(WA) Office Hours: 08 9321 1101 After Hours: 0439 380 266	Mark Schneider Communications Manager UDIA (WA) P: 08 9321 1101 Mob: 0439 187 651 E: mschneider@udiawa.com.au